down Payne street and into the road leading to the burying grounds, causing construction and pacie among the numerous pedestrians who hap-pened to be in that locality. The southern re-tion of the city was for some years the arena for such performances, but an item in this column calling attention to its dangerous nature had the desired effect; and it is hoped that parties owning such animals may contrive by some means to keep them within an enclosure on Eundays that no harm may result from their capers.

BISHOP KEANE -The ab'e and elequent Bishop of Richmond, Rt. Rev. J. J. Keane, D. D., on his return from Chicago, stopped in this city yesterday and preached two excellent sermons to St. Mary's Church. At 7 a. m. the Bishop celebrated mass. At 11 a. m. Ray. Father Whyte, the assistant paster of the church, calebrated mass, and the Bishep or the same committee from the 3d ward, and preached a most interes ing sermon on the work of the Holy Spirit, from the text, "It is expedient for you that I go away; for it I go not away, the Comforter wil not come unto y.u. At 7 p. m. the Bishop presched again. Bishop Keane has many admirers in this city, and the announcement that he is to preach always draws large congregations. The church was filled presenday at both services, the talented preacher being listened to with close attention that he was ordained a minister of the Guspel by Protestants as well as Catholics.

A FAREWELL -Mr. Charles Rosch, who departed yesterday morning for Alabama, to fill a position on the engineer corps of the Western Georgia railroad, was tendered a ferewell entertstoment, by his young friends, at the Con cordin Horel, Smardoy night last. At the conclusion of the repast a number of specches were made by those present. Mr. Reach, io response to a toast, thanked the company for the complement, and made some very pretty farewell remarks, stating that no matter where his lot might be east in the fature, he would ever remember, with tender effiction, his ssociates in Alexandria.

CAED-It should be generally known that CAED—It enough on generally and one or persons so unfortunate as to lose one or persons and pot wait wasks and more of their teeth need not wait weeks and months for artificial substitutes and endure inconvenience, disagreeable changes in voice, fa-cial expression, &c., but may have artificial teeth made before and inserted immediately af-ter extraction of their natural teeth. By this mode a better adaptation, a more pleasant exreszion and a nearer approach toward preserving the natural harmony of the features are secured, and very much of the pain and difficulty experienced in learning to use teeth are also avoided. I have practiced this mode successfully for seven years, and having introduced it here, would be glad to refer any one interested to pa-tients who know of it from experience. In treating the natural teeth my object is to preserve every one that time, patience and modern methods of treatment can save. The use of arsenic in destroying exposed nerves is condemned by the more ealightened of the dental profession on account of its turning teeth dark, inducing ab scess and finally the loss of the teeth. The nerve should always be treated, when exposed, with a view to its rectoration to health.
